REQUEST TO SUSPEND POLYGRAPH CONDITION

Ryan Howes has a documented history of schizophrenic disorder, paranoid type, anxiety disorder, ADHD, and learning disabilities. Our office has obtained official documentation of his mental health issues, medications and verified his diagnoses through direct contact with health providers, and family members. In May 2023, Howes submitted to a polygraph which was found to be "deceptive," however, the polygrapher reported that Howes, "lacked the mental capacity to understand the meaning, scope and purpose of the test." In July 2023, a polygraph was re-administered, and it was again determined by the polygrapher that due to his mental health issues and prescribed medication, Howes is not an appropriate candidate for polygraph testing. For these reasons, we are requesting his special condition of polygraph examination be suspended. We will monitor his progress and if circumstances improve, we will notify Your Honor and resume polygraph examinations.

Respectfully submitted,

SUSAN M. SMALLEY, Chief
U.S. Probation Officer
